Williamson County cities have new transit option Commuter, regional buses now serve Spring Hill, Brentwood and Franklin

FROM STAFF REPORTS • DECEMBER 3, 2009

The first regular rush hour express bus service to Nashville began Tuesday morning.

Spring Hill Express and Franklin/Brentwood Express buses made their initial runs. The service, provided through the Regional Transit Authority via a contract with Gray Line, is the second bus service to start serving Williamson County this year.

The Regional Transportation Authority has expanded its regional bus network to Spring Hill, Franklin and Brentwood. On Tuesday, the first day of the new routes, Rozelle White of McKay's Mill departs from Cool Springs to downtown Nashville at 7:10 a.m. (PHOTOS BY SHELLEY MAYS / THE TENNESSEAN)

Two daily buses run from Franklin to Nashville via Brentwood. One bus serves Spring Hill and Thompson's Station.

The cost is $3.50 per ride or $60 for a 20-ride pass.

In July, the Anchor Trailways Runner began daily service to and from Nashville with stops in Spring Hill and Franklin as well as Tennessee cities Lawrenceburg, Ethridge and Columbia on routes that begin and end in Tusculumbia, Ala. The bus goes to the Clement Landport in the Gulch, then on to Nashville International Airport.
